We really do not have a reason to think that the Egyptians would not have blamed him when he released the water at God's Command.

Do you think that Moses, when he was looking at the Promised Land, and God told he would not enter it, complained about the criminal who repented from his cross?

Friend, are you putting enough effort into your time in the vineyard?

There are only two rewards offered.

Eternity with the Lord and His Heavenly host.

Eternity with the Satan and His demonic host.
