

Are You Committed Or Not Committed?

“Commit thy works unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established”,
Proverbs 16:3,

Other than our Lord Jesus, it is impossible to look beyond Daniel, who only permitted the Spirit of God control his life style.

He did not permit his daily situations to influence his directions for the day.

Christianity without Christ becomes a hollow commitment, and the Christian is as a blind man without a guide in a minefield.

Each of us will reach a point in our lives of where we will be required to make a commitment.

It is a double commitment, for it will determine the way we live on this earth, and where we will reside for eternity.

The decision you make will come as a complete package deal.

Solomon, some nine hundred and fifty years before the Birth of Jesus, summed up the attitude of many in the world nearly two thousand years after the Death of our Lord, “There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death”, Proverbs 16:25.

To continue living as you had been living, you will remain as a blind man without a guide in a minefield

The major difference starts as you reach the gate of eternity. You will be assailed by the heat, and the screams of those who entered earlier.

For those who chose to make a change, the new lifestyle requires a one 100 per cent commitment.

Regrettably, commitment to day is equated with the words, ‘Once upon a time...’!

If, in our lives, we were to turn it into a reality word, we would have a world where,

Patriotism, where the leadership declares, and inspires those under them, to show a love for one's country.

Churches, where the leadership declares, and inspires those under them, to show a love for their Creator and His Creation.

Schools, where the leadership declares, and inspires those attending to use their skills of diplomacy and integrity.

Marriage, where the Creator of men and women brought Adam and Eve together as a husband and wife. Not a husband or wife with a pretend husband or wife.

Each, patriotism, church, school, or a marriage requires a one 100 per cent commitment.

Daniel, a teenage Jewish captive of the Babylonian army, served three separate Babylonian rulers.

To the God of his fathers he remained,

Patriotic to the commandments of his God,

Church, he never ceased to preach and live a Godly life,

School, he verbally taught, by declaring that his knowledge came from God, In practice demonstrated that God's protection was impenetrable by walking from the furnace unscathed,

Marriage, he is currently residing in the presence of his God, awaiting the call to attend the Bridal Supper.

Thus Daniel's commitment enabled him, as a captive, to live in humility, and keep his morals intact.
